Featuring Tiana Buschmann & Stephanie Kohlhardt

About Tiana: Tiana Buschmann has lived and danced in the Yampa Valley since 1996. She trained at Motion Underground, The EDGE, and Millennium Dance Complex and continues training at every opportunity available. Tiana has toured Colorado and California performing in the theatrical Hip Hop dance company Motion Elite. She served as VP of Steamboat Dance Theatre for 2 years and was a contributing choreographer for 8 years. Her passion is Hip Hop dance, but she also has a background in Jazz and Contemporary dance styles. Tiana is determined to emphasize cutting edge choreography and stylized movement to her students. She is committed to providing quality instruction and performance in an effort to create more awareness of dance culture and community. Tiana directs Elevation Dance Studio's Company, Pre-Professional, Elite & Premier Dance Competition Teams since 2016.

About Steph: Stephanie Kohlhardt started her passion for dance at the early age of 3 while taking ballet, jazz, and tap in Loveland, CO. She began competing in contemporary, lyrical, hip-hop, jazz, and ballet at conventions such as LA Dānce Māgic and New York City Dance Alliance. She began teaching at Broadway Bound Dance Academy at the age of 16 and coached and choreographed the BBDA Senior Competition team from 2008-2010. In college she performed countless shows with the Colorado State University Dance Department and continued studying ballet, jazz, and modern under CSU professors of dance Melissa Corr, Carol Roderick, and Chung-Fu Chang. Stephanie was also a part of the CSU Golden Poms where she performed at the CSU football and basketball games and competed at the United Dance Association (UDA) Nationals for 2007. Stephanie loves to share her passion for dance with everyone around her and is excited to bring new styles and ideas to her classes. Stephanie is also the Fitness Director at Elevation Dance Studio in Steamboat Springs.
